Forward-Looking Statements

Forward-looking statements in this report relating to WesBanco's plans, strategies, objectives, expectations, intentions and adequacy of resources, are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The information contained in this report should be read in conjunction with WesBanco's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018 and documents subsequently filed by WesBanco with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including WSBC's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, which are available at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov or at WesBanco's website, www.wesbanco.com. Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements, which are not historical fact, involve risks and uncertainties, including those detailed in WesBanco's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC under "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A. Such statements are subject to important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by such statements, including, without limitation, the effects of changing regional and national economic conditions; changes in interest rates, spreads on earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, and associated interest rate sensitivity; sources of liquidity available to WesBanco and its related subsidiary operations; potential future credit losses and the credit risk of commercial, real estate, and consumer loan customers and their borrowing activities; actions of the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the SEC, the Financial Institution Regulatory Authority, the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, the Securities Investors Protection Corporation, and other regulatory bodies; potential legislative and federal and state regulatory actions and reform, including, without limitation, the impact of the implementation of the Dodd-Frank Act; adverse decisions of federal and state courts; fraud, scams and schemes of third parties; cyber-security breaches; competitive conditions in the financial services industry; rapidly changing technology affecting financial services; marketability of debt instruments and corresponding impact on fair value adjustments; and/or other external developments materially impacting WesBanco's operational and financial performance. WesBanco does not assume any duty to update forward-looking statements.

Financial and Operational Highlights – Q1 2019

- Strong profitability with year-over-year growth in earnings supported by solid credit quality and expense management
- Net income up 26.9% to $42.8 million and, reflecting higher shares outstanding due to acquisitions, EPS up 2.6% to $0.78 (excluding certain costs)
 - Net interest margin of 3.68%, improved both sequentially and year-over-year
 - Strong efficiency ratio of 55.9%, relatively stable during the last six quarters
 - Return on average tangible common equity of 16.6% (excluding certain costs)
 - Continued strength across key credit quality ratios, including non-performing assets, past due loans, provision for credit losses, and net loan charge-offs
- Focused on generating positive operating leverage and profitability while maintaining legacy of sound credit quality
 - Increasing long-term shareholder value through earnings and dividend growth
 - Completed data systems and signage conversion of FFKT merger, and consolidated six financial centers
- Earned the #7 ranking in the United States from Forbes magazine's World's Best Banks ranking, based on customer satisfaction and feedback

Net Interest Margin (NIM)

- NIM continues to reflect the benefit to asset yields from the increases in the Federal Reserve Board's target federal funds rate during 2018 and the higher margins on the acquired Farmers Capital net assets plus purchase accounting, partially offset by higher overall funding costs and a flattening of the yield curve
- NIM improvement benefits from future loan repricing with partial offsets from the factors affecting NIMs across the industry, including a very flat spread between the 2-year to 10-year Treasury yields and an overall low long-term rate environment
 - Core deposit funding advantage, combined with a low loan-to-deposit ratio, will help to maintain overall deposit funding costs

Note: the "yield curve" represents the spread difference in the market yields for the 2-year and 10-year U.S. Treasury securities; the spread was ~125bp at 12/31/2016 and declined to ~17bp at 3/31/2019 (source: Federal Reserve H.15 Selected Interest Rates)

Benefits of Core Deposit Funding Advantage

- Robust legacy deposit base, enhanced by shale energy-related royalties
 - Land owner royalties from energy companies are decades-long contracts
 - These royalties have averaged low 8-figure monthly deposit in-flows for WesBanco, and have helped control total deposit funding costs (incl. non-int. bearing)
 - 16% total deposit beta on +75bp Fed Funds Rate increases since 3/31/2018
- Total demand deposits 52% of total deposits (vs. 37% 5 years ago)
- During the last five years:
 - Total deposits (excluding CDs) have grown organically at a 4% CAGR
 - Total demand deposits have grown organically at a 7% CAGR

Risk Management and Regulatory Compliance

- Strong legacy of credit and risk management
 - Based upon conservative underwriting standards
- Mature enterprise risk management program headed by Chief Risk Officer addressing key risks in all business lines and functional areas
- Enhanced compliance and risk management system and testing platform
 - Strong and scalable BSA/AML function
- Strong regulatory capital ratios significantly above regulatory requirements
- Six consecutive “outstanding” CRA ratings since 2003
